

WAR ON TICKET SPECULATORS IS NEARLY ENDED

Aldermen to Decide Fate of Bill to Put Stop to Licensed Nuisance.

Chairman Redmond, of the Aldermen's Committee on Laws and Legislation, completing eleven members, will call an executive meeting of the committee today or tomorrow to discuss the proposed ordinance regarding the sidewalk ticket speculators' license law. This measure was introduced by Alderman Redmond at the request of The Evening World, thousands of theatregoers having complained of the many insults offered and the indignities practiced by the speculators. The Board of Aldermen referred the matter to the Committee on Laws and Legislation, and that body has held two public hearings, each of which was attended with much interest.

Many managers of theatres who have found the sidewalk speculator a menace to their business and a detriment to its orderly conduct were among those who attended the hearings and spoke openly and fearlessly in advocacy of the proposed revocation of the speculator privileges. These are granted the speculators through the medium of a city license costing the holder $5.

When the race-track bill was passed many bankers on and holders of the race tracks, finding their old occupation gone, rushed to the License Bureau and secured licenses to speculate in theatre tickets.

The custom long complained of by the theatre-going public became a hundred per cent. worse with its new acquisitions of race-track touts and toughs. For years theatre managers had vainly been fighting the speculators, but court decisions sustained the men who, by reason of a city license, were enabled to stand in front of the theatre property and sell tickets at exorbitant rates.

Cliques of ticket speculators managed to monopolize the best seats, for which they can command any price, leaving theatre patrons completely at their mercy. Many subterfuges have been resorted to to get these tickets, managers complaining that the speculators were frequently bribed so that tickets for choice seats would become the property of the speculators.

It is pointed out that the only means by which the public can be protected and the sidewalk ticket speculator pest abolished is to repeal absolutely the city law under which licenses are granted. The suggestion from the ticket speculators themselves that the fee be increased to $50 is not to be tolerated. In practice such a law would give unwarranted privileges to a few and permit of the employment of "assistants" without removing the responsibility of daily by the theatre managers. Mayor McCallan is said to favor The Evening World's plan to abolish the speculators by abolishing the law which permits them to do business.

Among theatre managers none have been more active in this regard than Mr. J. J. Klaw, of the theatrical firm of Klaw and Erlanger. Mr. Klaw has attended each of the public hearings with counsel, and on behalf of himself and the Theatrical Managers' Association, argued determinedly in behalf of The Evening World's resolution. He said that theatrical managers to a man would stand in favor of the proposed measure, and added that theatre tickets should be sold directly from the box office to the person or persons intending to occupy the seats. He favored, too, a plan of printing on each ticket the box office price of each and to retain such price uniformly.

"Ticket speculators are a common and public nuisance," said Mr. Klaw today. "I have no feeling against the men as individuals, but as part of a system they are most undesirable. We have fought them for years, but they are protected when they hold a license from the city. It is not right that the city should license anybody to stand in front of private property and set up an opposition business. These men as a class are obnoxious. They impose on our patrons, and we are powerless to prevent their operations. The box office is the place for the sale of tickets, and if this proposed ordinance is adopted I will vouch that not a single ticket for our theatres will be found on sale anywhere but at the box office. That is the only solution of the ticket speculator nuisance."

Alderman Redmond said today that no executive meeting of his committee had yet been called, but that today or tomorrow he would probably be able to get the committee together, when the whole matter will be thrashed out. Seen at his home, No. 155 Underhill avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Evening World, Alderman Redmond said: "The campaign and election intervening prevented us from getting together. I have heard from both sides on this subject and have not made up my mind as to what the report shall be. There are eleven members of our committee, and each member will be held when we get together. I cannot tell now what will be decided upon. There may be a minority and a majority report."

VINOL CURES CHRONIC COUGHS, COLDS AND BRONCHITIS

After Other Remedies Fail

"I have been troubled with a chronic cold and bronchitis for a long time and have tried many remedies without finding relief. Through the kind suggestion of a friend I tried Vinol, and after taking four bottles am entirely cured."—A. H. White, 133 5th Avenue, Minneapolis, Minn.

S. McDonald, 147 W. Congress St., St. Paul, Minn., writes: "I contracted a severe cold last winter and thought I would never get rid of it. I tried Vinol as a last resort and it has completely cured me."

Vinol combines two world-famed tonics—the healing, medicinal properties of cod-liver oil and tonic iron—deliciously palatable and agreeable to the weakest stomach. For this reason Vinol is unequalled as a strength-builder for old people, delicate children, weak and run-down persons after sickness and for Chronic Coughs, Colds and Bronchitis.
